

Managerial Empirical Research Arena

WYDZIAŁ ZARZĄDZANIA
UNIWERSYTET WARSZAWSKI

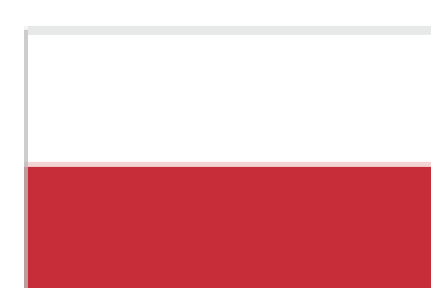

We are pleased to invite you to the 1st edition of the on-line "Managerial Empirical Research Arena" (MERA) conference, which will take place on July 25, 2020 (Saturday).

The conference will commence at 9.00 with an opening address from prof. dr hab. Alojzy Nowak, Rector-Elect of University of Warsaw.

MERA1 is an event dedicated to the presentation of empirical research conducted by Ph.D. students of Faculty of Management University of Warsaw. Most of them are the students of the "Multicultural Management in the Era of Globalization" Program conducted in English.

All invited to participate in the conference and discussions - to register, please go to: bit.ly/MERA1-apply

8:45-9:00	Participants registration (technical tests)
9:00	Opening address from prof. dr hab. Alojzy Nowak Rector-Elect of University of Warsaw, Dean of Faculty of Management
Session 1	Krzysztof Jaworski - Efficiency of infrastructure investments in railway sector - comparison and best practices in main world's regions Wojciech Chmielewski - The influence of the growth factors of the selected publicly listed companies of the ICT sector on their market situation 2008-2017 Jacek Karasiński - Efficiency of the quant funds in the context of the weak-form informational market efficiency Maria Schuldners - The applicability of German administrative models for the resolution of barriers for public-private partnership development in Poland Nina Łazarczyk-Bilal - Conditions of Refugee Entrepreneurial Intentions in the Example of Sweden
Session 2 @11:00	Agnieszka Łęgocka - UK academics' perception of the quality systems at universities - preliminary findings Sylwia Radomska - Paid or free tertiary education? Adopting optimal taxation approach in overlapping generations model with dynasties Mudassira Sarfraz - Social Norms and Women Labor Force Participation: A Causal Identification Analysis Karolina Osterczuk - The experimentation in social innovation initiatives Eissa Sinaei Parsa - Coevolution Digital Economy and Behavioral Economics
Session 3 @13:00	Leila Shoraka - Employability Market Orientation in Iran Edyta Sobótka - Jawność wynagrodzeń Dominic Schulze - Individual differences in preferences for shared leadership Anna Koval - Impact of communication styles fit on the leadership outcomes Marta Kabut - Procedure for detecting inattentive survey respondents
Session 4 @15:00	Magdalena Simkowska-Gawron - Successful careers and well-being of employees Daniel Pazura - Consequences of compatibility level between employee and supervisor characteristics Afsaneh Yousefpour - Generational Differences in Human and Work Values in Iran and Poland Zahra Momenfar - Educational Gender Gap - comparison between Iran and Poland Magdalena Sieradzka & Kinga Wilczyńska - Who can multitask at low costs?
	Closing remarks by prof. dr hab. Grażyna Wieczorkowska-Wierzbińska Head of Ph.D. program Faculty of Management
	End of 1st edition of MERA Conference

Rzeczpospolita
Polska

Unia Europejska
Europejski Fundusz Społeczny

